4. Fragments of legal tender notes for which ruled:

less than the full value has been paid will be retained six months to enable owners to return to the Treasury missing parts of such nices and receive the amount previously withheld. Such return should give the date of the letter from this office transmitting the original resultance. INTERRINGRESTRE NOTES.

The rules for the redemption of mutilated United States notes are likewise applicable to mutilated theresi-bearing nodes.

Coupons of two years five per cent. Treasury nodes separated from the nodes of which they constituted a part, are of no value except when presented for redemption with the notes to which they belong. Coupons should not be detached from the five per cent, nodes except by a Government officer authorized to redeem them at maturity. But this regulation does not apply to coupon notes or bonds other than five per cent. notes PRACTIONAL CUBRENCY.

than one-tentified its size regarded as a mutiation.

Fragments of a note will not be redeemed unless; shull be clearly evident that they constitute one-half or more of one original note; in which case a note, however mutilsteed, will be redeemed by proportion to the whole note, reckoning by fittis, except three cent notes, which will be reckoned by thirds.

2 Mutilitions less than one-tenth will be disregarded, unless frandulant; but any mafiliation which destroys more than one-tenth of the original note will reduce the redeemfion value of the note by one-third of its original value.

3 Fragments of a three cent note will not be redeemed, unless such fragmans constitute fully two-thirds of the note in its original form.
